

Learn the Native American Flute

Level 2: Finding Your Song

Continue your musical exploration with the Native American flute. Fine-tune your skills and experience the true joy of creating music.

Thursdays 7:30-9:30pm beginning March 11, 2010
Mar 11 ~ Mar 18 ~ Apr 1 ~ Apr 8 (note: there will be no session on Mar 25)

Location: Plano/Allen, Texas area
Near 75/Central & Bethany Dr.

Instructor: Cornell Kinderknecht

Cornell is a World Flutes performing and recording artist as well as a teacher. He currently has two solo albums to his credit and can be heard on numerous other artists' recordings. He has a private studio of flute students in Dallas and is a frequent performer and presenter at music workshops around the US. With his expertise, he provides practical hands-on instruction while his light-hearted approach puts students at ease. Cornell has been a Texas Music Awards nominee twice and he currently serves on the Board of Directors of Earth Rhythms.

www.cornellk.com

A four-session course to build skills on this beautiful, haunting, meditative, exciting instrument.

- ◆ Fine-tuning your sound and technique
- ◆ Improvisation
- ◆ Extended scales and effects
- ◆ Flute tablature and notation

Students should have either taken the beginning class, "Finding the Voice Within" OR have some basic experience with the Native American flute. Ability to read music is NOT a prerequisite.

Course fee: $95

 A pentatonic Native American flute is required for this course. If you need one, a high quality flute will be provided upon request for an additional $45.*

Advance registration for this class is requested.
Please register online by Mar 9 at:

www.cornellk.com