This evening is a rich, experiential, ceremonial, way to deepen and share your authenticity by journeying through the energy, music and metaphor of each chakra. We begin with the root chakra energy of community and travel through creation, empowerment, compassion, truth, insight, and divinity. Step into 2009 with your true sounding of joy, beauty, and clarity of intention.

Jodi Roberts

Cornell Kinderknecht

Cornell Kinderknecht is a multi-instrumentalist performer, recording artist, and teacher. He is passionate about the study and practice of how music, in many forms, may be used in the processes of healing, personal growth, and positive change. His mastery of flutes from cultures around the world combined with his sensitivity uplifts the soul and soothes the heart and mind. His use of music as a medium for meditation, for setting positive intention, or for enjoyment, is a powerful tool for realizing one's true potential. Learn more about Cornell and his music at www.CornellK.com

Jodi Roberts is a sound healing catalyst for transformation, ceremonial concert musician, and recording artist using the sound of Tibetan bowls and wind gongs to weave meditative, ceremonial experiences of peace, love, joy and beauty. She is a cultural anthropologist trained in cross-cultural Native American ceremony and healing, spiritual counseling, energy healing, Zen meditation and Tibetan sound healing. She has 20 years of experience and training in mindfulness and meditation techniques for stress reduction and creation of clear choices and actions based on those choices. www.SacredInspiration.com
